Creighton News

The Sunday school is surely on the increase and is a perfect hive for activity. Two weeks ago there were one hundred sixteen present, while the next Sunday there were but one hundred seven, there were real reasons for it and now that our great revival has begun we expect many more to come. The Rev. Mr. Sebringhaus is doing the preaching in his own forceful style and every one in the community should attend some of these excellent meetings.

Mrs. Torian has been suffering from another attack of erysipelas but is improving daily. Henry is able to be about the house now, and hopes soon to be back in school again.

Mrs. Mackey took her room on a picnic Friday afternoon to the Red Buttes where they had a good lunch and delightful time. They took home spring flowers, happy hearts and sun-burnt faces. All the legitimate fruits of a picnic.

Mrs. Shannon Leeper is reported to be suffering from an attack of diphtheria. The Sebringhaus, Wilson and O'Brien families attended the revival at Central church in town Friday night, and were much pleased with Mr. Price's sermon.

John H. Farnham's convalescence from the pupils of his room divided themselves into sections of about eight each and took turns in writing letters to Henry, telling him in their own way, of all the school happenings which greatly cheered the time for Henry, and was good for the writers in more ways than one.

While Mr. Pfleiderer was helping in the revival in the First M. E. church in town recently, Mr. Sebringhaus submitted to him some songs of his own composition, both words and music, and four of them have been accepted for the new book of songs which Mr. Pfleiderer is to use in the future, one of them is to be printed on leaflets with a few other choice songs, and the critic said of it: "We should not be surprised if it is instrumental in saving as many souls as 'Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?' or 'Meet Mother in the Siles'."

Recently Mr. Sebringhaus sang his beautiful little "Evening Song" for the league. The people out here are very proud of their pastor's musical abilities.

The baseball team of Mr. Hirsch's team played against the Wilson school team on the Acro City ball ground Friday afternoon and won the game. The score was 19 to 10. The boys think now they should like to play against some other rival team right soon.

Mrs. G. A. Moore, Mrs. T. T. Powers, Mrs. Franklin McRae, Mrs. and Miss Perkins met at the home of Mrs. W. J. Osborn Friday afternoon to arrange for the serving of refreshments at the P. T. A. meeting Friday afternoon. They agreed to abide by the rule of the Creighton P. T. A. to serve only two things, even if they are entertaining company. Both the Wilson and Balz associations are invited to be present, and Miss Salisbury of the University is to deliver an address. A large attendance is expected and a good program assured.
